What becomes of the geldings that were prominent on the trotting tarf, after they become too old for road use, is a question that is frequently asked and which few car. answer, says a writer in the Philadelphia Times. Many of the faster ones are for a time easily traced, but they soon drop out of sight and eventually disappear. Such is the case with St. Julien, 2:11%, who is now passing his declinitg years in a comfortable paddock at Petaluma, Cal., under the sky where he first showed the bursts of speed that ultimately made him the king of the turf. With Hopeful, 2:182, another phase of equine life is found. He was in his day as colebrated as Rarus, or even St, Julien, was a magnificent receivorse to harness to wagon, and an ideal road trotter. When his racing days were over the gallant lifting grave began to drift about the country, eventually pulling up at Sing Sing prison, in New York state, where he was kept and owned by a prominent detective. Of late, however, he has passed into the tands of a Maryland gentlemta, who considers it an honor to own the trotter that has the fast est heats to wagon muong his achievements, Lew, if any, of the horses campatigned by Dan Mace were as popular as Darby, 2:40.

Health Hints.

There is no medicine so often needed in every household as a good reliable liniment such as Chamberlain's Pain Balm. Hardly a week passes but some member of the fam-ily has need of it for some allocent. A toothache or headache may be cared by it. A touch of rheumatism or neuralgia quieted. The severe pain of a burn or scald promptly relieved, and the sore healed in much less time than when medicine has to be sent for. A sprain may be promptly treated before in-flammation sets in, which insures a cure in about one-third of the time otherwise re-quired. Cuts and bruises should receive immediate treatment before the parts be-come swollen, which can only be done when come swollen, which can only be done when the Pain Balm is kept on hand. A sore throat may be cured before it becomes serious. A troublesome corning be removed by applying it twice a day for a week or two Quinsey and glandular swellings may be suppressed before matter has begun to form in them. A hane back may be cared and several days of valuable time scred. A pain in the side or chest releved without paying a doctor bill. When so much pain and suffering may be saved by the trivial outlay of fifty cents, it is certainly surprising that any family would do without such a remedy. The fact is, few of those who have used Chamberlain's Pain Balm are willing to be without it.

The Verdict Unanimous.

W. D. Sult, druggist, Bippus, Ind., testi-W. D. Sailt, druggist, hippus, ind., testifies: "I can recommend Electric Bitters as the very best remedy. Every bottle sold has given relief in every case. One man took six bottles and was cured of rhoumatism of ten years' standing." Abraham Hare, druggist. Belleville. Ohio. affirms: "The best selling medicine I have ever handled in my twenty years' experience, is Electric Bitters." Thousands of others have added their testimony, so that the verdict is unanimous that Electric Bitters do cure all diseases of the liver, kidneys or cure all diseases of the liver, kidneys or blood. Only half a dollar a bottle at R. S. Hale & Co.'s drug store.

What on Earth

Is the reason people will not, cannot, or do not see any difference in cheap nostrums put up by Cheap John houses or irresponsible parties at enormous prouts, rather than take a medicine of world-wide reputation and one that is giving universal satisfaction at equal price? No medicine in the world is giving such unparalleled satisfaction for purifying the blood as Beggs Blood Puriner and Blood Maker, and every bottle that ing which grew worse each day. Upon looking in the glass she saw dark circles under her eyes and found that she was growing thinner and losing all interest in life. This painful state of things continued for months until finally she became so weak she could not attend to her duties and was confined to her bed the greater part of the time. One day Mrs. Harlan's very dear friend Mrs. Willard called and was amazed to see her so wan and faded. Two bright heetic spots stood upon each cheek, her lips were blue, her face pinched and drawn, and there was a piteous look in her eyes. Mrs. Willard knew this meant consumption and her heart was touched for her friend. At her carnest request the use of an English Remedy for consumption was tried. At the start very little effect could be seen, so great an inroad had the dissase made, but by degrees Mrs. Harlan began to regain her lost appetite, then her strength, then her hope, then her health, and she is today in perfect physical condition, wholly as a result of the use of Br. Acker's Enzilsh Remedy for Consumption.

The lesson of this simple story should be picin.

The legson of this simple story should be plain to all. No man or woman can afford to neglect hose first symptoms of consumption, which seems so alight but which becomes so terrible mean an afford to neglect those first symptoms of consumption, which seems so alight but which becomes so terrible mean in time. This Great Remedy has saved the lives of hundreds of well known men and women who were on the verse of the grave from consumption but who are well and happy to day. It is sold universally.
